WILLINGDON'S SON FLIES ON PERILOUS TRIP
Police Search Plane to be Used for Voyage to India
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Police today searched the new airplane in which Viscount Ranelagh, son and heir of Lord Willingdon, Viceroy of India, and former Governor-General of Canada, started toward India as a precaution against any plot aimed at the distinguished passenger. "Owing to the recent report of what may have been an attack on Lord Ranelagh's life, the start of the flight was made under police supervision, and a search was made of the plane in which he is flying," said an airport official.
A few days ago a man believed to be an Indian was reported to have gained access to the rear of Viscount Ranelagh's London house but was surprised by a neighbor from the roof and escaped. Police did not obtain confirmation of the story.

EX-SHERIFF IS STILL HUNTED
CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Vernie C. Miller, the missing South Dakota sheriff who turned gunman and became one of the most hunted men in the United States, was still at large today after escaping the gunfire of federal agents who tracked him to a Chicago hideout.

He is wanted for the Kansas City Union station snuffing of last June in which four officials and Frank James, an escaped prisoner on route to Leavenworth prison, were killed.

British Columbia In Election Jam

GREAT LEGION OF CANDIDATES OFFER SELVES
Inclement Weather Faced by Electorate—Two Contests Delayed
VANCOUVER, Nov. 2.—Dismal weather prevailed in many centers as British Columbia's electorate went to the polls today. Early indications were the vote would be heavy.
In Vancouver, on the southern part of the Vancouver Island, off the coast and in the Kootenay district rain was general.
The mainland city's voters were flocking to the polls in large numbers in all ridings except Vancouver center where a deferred election is to be held Nov. 10.
In Victoria, the Victorian riding there was no halting today but voting was proceeding in the adjacent ridings of Saanich and Esquimalt and at all other ridings. Patient electors lined up in the rain outside one Vancouver polling subdivision to await opening of the booth at 9 A.M.
Unusually mild conditions contrasted with the effects of the inclement weather in the island.
Nine political groups were represented in the election of one of the most confusing which ever faced a British Columbia electorate.
While definite word was lacking, it was assumed last-minute arrangements to deliver ballots to several districts interior parties by airplane had been successful. Plans made by election officials at Victoria to meet the situation created by an unexpected early freezing of the north called for one airplane to fly ballots from Prince George to Bulkley and Bulkley Creek while another was to leave Prince George with ballots for Bulkley and Bulkley Creek.
Landings proved impossible but the planes were to be dropped by parachute.

MILLWAUKEE, Nov. 2.—A dynamite bomb today demolished the cheese factory of E. L. Bley, near Port Washington, Wis., which followed the blast, completed destruction of the factory.

Bley, the owner, estimated the damage at $15,000. No one saw the bombers.
A group of strikers today made another run on the plant of the same dairy at Waterville, south of here. The same dynamite was made by about 50 pickets who overpowered four deputies and destroyed about half a carload of milk for shipment to Milwaukee.

U.S. FEDERAL RESERVE BANK SOE GOVT. PURCHASING AGENT

Banks of England, France May Act Abroad For Finance Corporation—Daily Price Pegged at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—James H. Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, announced last night that the corporation would begin purchase of gold in foreign markets today on behalf of the United States government.

The announcement was made in an address, in which Jones said today the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, under the authority vested in it by the act passed last night, has authorized the Federal Reserve Bank of New York to dispose of the notes of the corporation and take in payment foreign gold imported after November 1, 1933.

He refused to amplify the statement, in response to questions by reporters other than to say the actual purchasing of gold would be done today. Jones did, however, say that the Federal Reserve Bank of New York would be the government's sole agent.

He said the price to be paid would be announced today.

The president's advisers indicated negotiations with Great Britain were proceeding satisfactorily by predicting that the coming operations would not have the result of putting Washington and London against each other in a foreign exchange duel.

EUROPEAN AGENCIES?

They declined to confirm a report the Banks of England and France would become the agents of the reconstruction corporation and the federal reserve system in making the gold purchases, but conceded nevertheless, this was a possibility.

Uncertainty over events here was blamed in market dispatches for the continued downward movement of commodities. Prices fluctuated widely. The Moody index of 15 staples compiled daily for the Associated Press fell from 129 to 128. Stocks moved in a narrow range with the market inactive, although a rally closed the day.

PEC GOLD PRICE DAILY

The administration, meanwhile, continued its practice of pegging the price of newly mined gold at a little higher each day. It was fixed at $32.28 an ounce, it was above yesterday's price of $31.92, also an advance over yesterday when the price was $31.68. The United States dollar was weak in relation to Canadian funds which touched their peak of the year, to pounds sterling and French franc.

It is the theory of President Roosevelt's economic advisers that by increasing the price of gold here through its purchase, the dollar would be sold abroad by buying in the open gold markets, it can also come commodity prices higher. This is based upon the economic theory that gold prices and commodity prices move together, that when one goes up the other soon adjusts to the rise.

But to buy gold abroad it must also buy Canadian dollars, pounds and francs with which to make the purchase and thus cause a direct doubling in foreign exchange.

Large purchases of pounds would have the effect of increasing the dollar in relation to the British monetary unit and hence British exports. Same goes for Canadian money.

With the exception of Chile, the material mortality rate of the United States is the highest in the world.

EXHIBITION TO TAKE POULTRY SHOW CONTROL

Association Directors Make Important Decision—Timely Interest

Climaxing one of their most important meetings in recent months, directors of the Edmonton Exhibition Association on Wednesday night by resolution, voted unanimously in favor of taking over control and operation of the Edmonton Poultry Show. In view of the fact that the next provincial poultry show is to be held in this city, the Association's action assumes a more timely interest.

The discussion of the matter, with subsequent action has been under consideration of Managing Director Percy W. Abbott for some time.

James Sutherland, president of the Association, presided at the meeting.

OUTLINES SCHEME
Outlining the scheme for taking over the Poultry Show, Mr. Abbott stated that at the previous meeting of Exhibition Association directors, he had been instructed to confer with Poultry Show officials with a view to the former organization absorbing the latter.

"Up until two years ago," he said, "the conducted a poultry show at the exhibition, but the idea was given up primarily because the birds were not, as a rule, in shape. The poultry show officials passed a resolution asking the Exhibition Association to operate their show and at the same time offering full use of their coops and other equipment."

Mr. Abbott then outlined that a committee would be named from the Exhibition Association to operate the show and that co-operating with it would be an advisory body composed of two members nominated by the Edmonton Poultry Club and one member from the Provincial Poultry Branch and one from each of the following: Bronze Turkey Breeders Association, Bantam Breeders Association and Pigeon Fanciers Club.

CVE SAME SUPPORT
The poultrymen, said Mr. Abbott, had agreed to give the show continued by the Exhibition Association, the same support as when they themselves ran it.

Strong recommendation to take over the show was made by Mr. Abbott. Poultry provided a highly important industry and to have a show terminate would be a great shame.

He thought the committee should be named and that work should start in preparation for the show. The following committee was then struck to carry on with the work: C. C. Brown, W. B. West, Alex. Bonneau, Miss E. L. Holmes, Fred Kemp, Joseph Lambert and W. Freese as alternate. Messrs. Sutherland and Abbott are ex-officio members of the committee.

Mr. Abbott expressed the opinion that prize money to be increased by 25 per cent. over last year.

TWO REPRESENTATIVES
Some discussion took place regarding representation at the annual meeting of the American Poultry Association and it was decided that the local association would be represented by Messrs. Sutherland and Abbott, with these two to appoint alternates. Mr. Sutherland could not make the trip, as he is in the city on business.

DUNVEGAN FERRY HAS GONE ADRIFT

PEACE RIVER, Nov. 2.—Drifting for six days in mid-stream, with all efforts at recovery unavailing due to strong winds which kept the hundred feet from both banks, the Dunvegan ferry, which broke from its moorings last Thursday, has gone down the river many miles below here.

The ferry passed through the loess Friday afternoon and stuck for a few minutes on the island, one mile below the bridge but drifting on broke it loose again. The river is swollen.

Word has reached here that a search party has been sent out from Fort Vermilion for the lost motor boat and seven which left here about two weeks ago and were last reported as being met by the Hudson Bay steamer, Wessome, 50 miles below Peace River. It is believed the lost boat is from a party of about 200 miles downstream. The Wessome has been taken out of the river for the winter.

A Challenge to Half a Million Old Radios

This is How the 1933 Radio Differs From Sets Made Five Years Ago!

A MODERN 1933 radio alongside a 1928 model! How do they differ in the quality and quantity of radio performance they deliver to your home? What degree of improvement has there been in the past five years?

We measured the difference between the two—scientifically, accurately. For example, modern radio equipment (not of any one manufacturer but of a group of ten manufacturers) checked and re-checked the figures. And here are their findings:

The total range of today's radios is 50% greater than five years ago. It covers every note of the musical scale, whether volume is set for dancing or day-dreaming!

1933 Radio 6 Times as Selective!
Today's radios are 6 times as selective as in 1928! This ends the needless annoyance of programs on adjoining channels interfering with each other, and gives sharp, clean-cut separation of stations.

Today's radios give 10 times the undistorted volume of sets of five years ago! This enormous reserve power makes all the difference imaginable on 75% of the programmes on the air.

And here's the most startling discovery of all. We checked and re-checked. It seemed unbelievable. But the proof is conclusive:

The sensitivity of 1933 sets, which determines the number of stations you hear on your radio, is more than 20 times greater than in 1928!

You'll Realize the Difference!
We know that once the owner of an old-type radio replaces it with a modern set, he realizes at once what he has been missing. But the actual difference between the two had never been measured, and results published, as we do now.

This message comes to you from the leading radio manufacturers of Canada. We challenge your investigation. You will never be content with your old set if you once realize the new thrills, the new enjoyment in store for you. See your dealer. Have him demonstrate modern radios to you. Convince yourself!

THE MYSTIC MAN

The blackbirds flew right to a died out and then the bunch heard in him to do a lot of clever things. That trick worked out just grand! The birds came out of the bushes, but what do you think of that? You saw the trick, and noticed all I did was wave my hand!

Said Goldy, "Twas a clever thing! And now, can you make the birds sing?"

The birds' strange singing soon Diddy about. "Well, here's my song. I must admit, it's cute as it can be. I'd try and sing the loveliest day, but I would have to work a bit, and that appeals to me."

"My, what a song," says Dotty cried. "I think you ought to run."

those birds sing? Just 'Caw' and really all I've ever heard a black-bird say!"

The Mystic Man said, "You forget that nothing's ever stopped me yet. The birds have never sung before, but they will sing today!"

Once more he gave his hand a fling, and all the birds began to sing. "Why, they sound like canaries," shouted Diddy. "Gee, how queer."

"Now, when they stop, I'll also sing. I know a clever little thing!" "That's fine," exclaimed the Mystic Man. "Your song I'd like to hear."

and hide your face. You're such a lazy lad!" This made the Times red.

The Mystic Man then said, "I'll do another little trick for you. Now, watch real closely, Times! There's a big surprise in store."

He waved his hand with all his might. The four birds disappeared from sight and in their places came four men. Cried Copsy, "Look at that!"

"Who are these men? What can they do?" The Mystic Man said. "They'll show you. They're going to put on quite an act. Each one's an acrobat."
